Call to Clay Artists

Clay Continuum IV is a regional juried show, exhibit and sale open to clay artists living in Colorado, New Mexico, and Wyoming. We are pleased to have regional artist Jean Latka as this year's juror.

Clay Continuum

To increase the awareness of local and regional clay artists and clay as an art form, organizers and clay artists, Polly Harris, Lori Hannan and Nicole Copel started the Clay Continuum show in 2006 and are joined by Mary Daly this year in this effort. Located in the arts oriented community of La Veta, in Huerfano County in south central Colorado, this year the show has been expanded to invite artists to apply from Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming.

SPACe Gallery

SPACe Gallery (Spanish Peaks Art Council) a non-profit gallery in La Veta, Colorado, promotes regional artists. It is currently undergoing a physical expansion and when complete will become a regional art center, offering on-location workshops and events.

Eligibility

Open to clay artists that live in Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming. Work Requirements: 1) Only original artwork 2) clay is the primary medium; 3) the work was completed in the last year; 4) wall pieces must be pre-approved. 5) All pieces must come with all necessary hardware to display.

Entries

Each artist may submit up to five images representative of their style of work. If accepted, submitted work must be of similar style and quality. Pedestal space for five pieces is provided and you may provide five additional pieces to replace sold work. There is a non-refundable entry fee of $20.

Submission is by digital format only. Send images on CD using JPG files only-recommended 300dpi.

Label digital files as follows: LastNameTitle.JPG

CD's will not be returned. Clay Continuum reserves the right to use images for exhibition promotion purposes only.
